

Kim, Uichol

김 의 철

Professor, College of Business Administration, Inha University

RESEARCH AREAS

He has conducted research in indigenous, organizational and cultural psychology, focusing on family and parent-child relationship, education attainment and school violence, organizational culture and leadership, health and quality of life, democracy, human rights and political culture. In management, his research focus on leadership, organizational behavior, business ethics, and strategic and knowledge management, emphasizing creativity, innovation, entrepreneurship.

TEACHING AREAS

Leadership
 organizational behavior
 business ethics marketing
 strategic management global management organizational innovation culture and management

EDUCATION

(1982) University of Toronto Toronto, Canada	Psychology (specialist), B.Sc. with high distinction Korean Studies (major)
(1988) Queen's University (1982) Kingston, Canada	Social psychology and Ph.D. cross-cultural psychology M.A.

EXPERIENCE

He has taught at the Department of Psychology, Chung-Ang University (1995-2005), Department of Social Psychology, University of Tokyo, Japan (1994) and Department of Psychology, University of Hawaii at Manoa, USA (1988-1994). He was a visiting professor, Stanford University (2004) and University of Bergen, Norway (2004).

He is a Senior Advisor Asia, Global Peter Drucker Forum, International Advisor, World Pandemic Research Network, Honorary Professor, Gratia Christina College, Hong Kong, International Advisory Board Member of Business School, National Institute for Development Administration, Thailand, and Board Member of Bachelor of Human Sciences in Psychology Programme, International Islamic University. He has been recognized as the second most cited Social Scientist in Korea (2016) and was recognized as Outstanding Research Professor at Inha University (2011) and Chung-Ang University (2002).

EXPERIENCE

He provided lectures, worked with and provided consulting for governmental agencies and global companies headquartered in the USA (Pfizer, Stryker Corporation; Department of Health, State of Hawaii), Canada (Canadian International Development Agency), France (La Poste, MAPI Institute), Germany (BASF), Thailand (PTT), Japan (Toyota Home), Indonesia (Ciputra Group) and Korea (LG Group, Samsung Life Insurance, Halla Group, Korean Federation of Industries).

PUBLISHED JOURNALS

He has published over 200 articles and 20 books and monographs, including Individualism and collectivism (Sage, 1994), Indigenous and cultural psychology (2006, Springer), Democracy, human right and Islam in modern Iran (with Shirin Ebadi, 2003 Nobel Laureate in Peace, Fagbokforlaget, 2003). He is one of the founders and served as president of Asian Association of Social Psychology, Asian Association of Indigenous and Cultural Psychology. He is the founding editor of Asian Journal of Social Psychology (SSCI listed journal).